

MyPodium Mobile

Visibility and mobility at your fingertip

OOCL Logistics has demonstrated its leadership in information technology and innovative solutions with the launch of MyPodium Mobile. MyPodium Mobile is designed especially for International Supply Chain Management customers, who need access to information when travelling outside of the office.

MyPodium Mobile allows you to access MyPodium with the convenience of smart phone technology, allowing you to keep track of key supply chain information anytime, anywhere. MyPodium Mobile allows you to view, track and trace the latest progress of important purchase orders and shipments, and to merchandise using smart phone technology. MyPodium Mobile gives you on-the-go access to exceptions, status updates and fast communication to your logistics team and OOCL Logistics' Customer Service.

Save administrative costs and valuable time with MyPodium Mobile, while enjoying complete visibility and updates on the key information in your supply chain. MyPodium Mobile benefits include:

- Quick look-ups of latest events on purchase orders and shipments
- Visibility at the order and item (SKU) levels
- Simple user interface
- Compatible with most common Smart Phones OS (iOS, Android)
- View Exception Alerts
- Message capability

YOUR NEW FAVORITE WAY TO TRACK SHIPMENTS

Going beyond MyPodium Mobile, you now can have visibility to your shipments in your Smartphone through an app. OOCL logistics' App also has the added feature of push notifications, so instead of having to return to your PC or the office, your phone will alert you with the latest information and allow you to immediately respond to exceptions on-the-go.

PUSH "EXCEPTIONS" – THE BEST WAY TO STAY IN TOUCH WITH YOUR SUPPLY CHAIN

It's fast and easy

Notifications in mobile apps provide alerts and related information instantly. You'll view shipment exceptions (notifications) in the Notification Center. All new exceptions appear on the home screen as they come in, just as you see incoming texts, or phone calls, giving you instant notification on the go.

Replies in a swift

You'll communicate directly with our Customer Service team with any instructions. All you have to do is reply on the exception with a short message. Clear and concise!
